U.S. CHANGING VIEW ON INTERVENTION, REPORT FROM JAPAN

Early Movement in Siberia Forecast—Tokio to Seek to Unify Chinese.

TOKIO, March 15.—Japanese intervention in Siberia is believed to be merely a question of time. All indications and the Japanese mobilization increase this belief, although Government officials have not disclosed their policy toward Siberia.

America is beginning to agree to intervention. The Allies favor the action.

It was learned to-day that Japan intends to mediate between North and South China, unifying all factions to meet the Russian crisis.

Prince Lvoff's Part in New Russian Role Denied.

LONDON, Thursday, March 15.—The report of the establishment of a new Russian Government in the Far East headed by Prince Lvoff, the first Premier of the Provisional Government in Russia after the revolution, is without foundation, according to a Russian despatch from Peking today. The report, the message states, probably refers to a conference held in Peking by prominent Russians on Feb. 28 and it is assumed that Prince Nicholas Kuskoff, Russian Minister to China, who took part in the conference, was confused with Prince Lvoff.

The report regarding a new Government headed by Prince Lvoff was printed in the Bolshevik organ, the Pravda, of Petrograd, on March 8. A Petrograd despatch last night announced the arrest of Prince Lvoff by the commander of the Russian northern front.

supplies at Vladivostok. There is no real danger, officials say, of German armies moving that far east, but there is a probability that supplies at Vladivostok might be sent into Russia and then find their way into German hands.

A clause in the Russo-German treaty requiring that Russian warships either be sent to Russian harbors and kept there until the end of the war or be dismantled, and that Allied warships in Russian waters be regarded as Russian ships, is not expected to remove any ships from the Baltic fleet except perhaps a few British submarines. Some of these vessels, operating in the Baltic, probably will proceed to Swedish ports and intern.

Germany will derive little immediate commercial advantage by ratification of the treaty, is the view of officials here. Russia's surplus grain stocks are said to be small and her manufacturing industries are disorganized. About 400,000 tons of grain in the Ukraine, which Germany and Austria expect to divide, are far inland and will be hard to move because of poor rail facilities.

LEON TROTSKY NAMED WAR COMMISSARY

Prince Lvoff, former Premier, Arrested for Trying to Make Siberia a Republic.

PETROGRAD, March 15 (United Press).—Former Foreign Minister Leon Trotsky has been named War Commissary.

Prince Lvoff, former Russian Premier, has been arrested and is held by the commissary of the northern front in connection with his move to set up a separate Government in Siberia with Japanese aid.

In open violation of the peace treaty with Russia, Germans and Turks at Trebizond have started a quick advance toward Northern Transcaucasia.

BALFOUR SEES DANGER OF GERMANY MAKING RUSSIA ITS OUTPOST

Speaking for Japanese Intervention, He Warns Central Powers May Set Up New Autocracy.

LONDON, March 15.—Debate on the question of Japanese intervention in Siberia in the House of Commons yesterday brought from Foreign Secretary Balfour the declaration that German penetration in Russia must be combatted. The Allied point of view was that they should help Russia in protecting herself against Germany. Although he did not think that Germany would send an army to Vladivostok, he said he had absolute faith in Japan's loyalty in carrying out any decision reached by the Allies.

Discussing the situation in Russia, Mr. Balfour said:

"If Russia had not been at war it would have taken many years to complete the beneficent course of the revolution. When autocracy fell almost without a blow, Russia immediately fell into chaos.

"There will be classes, some from patriots, others from selfish motives, ready to welcome anything promising a semblance of stability and order in the Government. When that time comes I can imagine Germany trying to re-establish possibly the old form of autocratic government. We should then have Russia shorn of some of its fairest provinces and with a kind of autocracy far worse than the old autocracy, because it would lean upon a foreign power for continued existence. If that came to pass all our dreams of Russian development and Russian liberty would be gone and Russia would become a mere outpost of the Central Powers.

"That is the real difficulty of dealing with the problems raised in this debate. Japan has behaved with perfect loyalty. Mr. Balfour said, and if she gives promises with regard to Russian integrity or on any question connected with Russia, 'she would keep them as she has kept all the promises she has made in connection with this war or in any great public transactions with the United States and the Allies.'

RUSSIA AND UKRAINE NEGOTIATE FOR PEACE

Rada to Meet Soon to Ratify the Treaty With the Central Powers.

AMSTERDAM, March 15.—The opening of peace negotiations at Kiev between Russia and Ukraine is reported in a Vienna despatch to the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin. The Ukrainian Rada, the despatch says, will meet soon to ratify the peace treaty with the Central Powers.

Germany has replied to Lithuania's repeated requests for recognition of her independence by making her recognition dependent upon Lithuanian agreement to certain military, customs, railway and currency conventions, according to the Vorwaerts of Berlin. These conditions Lithuania, in the hope of bringing about an alleviation of her condition, is ready to accept.

Vorwaerts says such procedure is in no way reconcilable with the declaration made by Imperial Chancellor von Hertling last November 29.

Active negotiations are on foot for a reconciliation between Germany and Poland and a new solution of the Polish situation will be announced shortly, according to the Kurjer Polesky of Warsaw.

Moscow Again Official Capital of Russia After 200 Years.

MOSCOW, Tuesday, March 12 (Delayed).—Moscow has again become the official capital of Russia. It was Peter the Great who moved the seat of government from Moscow to Petrograd, his name city which he founded, and after 200 years the government has been transferred by its present head, Nikolai Lenin, back to the historic capital in the heart of Russia.

This far the Germans have made no attempt at reconstruction.

Berlin Announces Capture of Town in Ukraine.

BERLIN (via London), March 15.—Bucharest, in Ukraine, has been occupied by German troops, the Berlin War Office announced to-day.

Austrian Workers ARE ON A NEW STRIKE

Refuse to Obey Orders of the Military to Return to Railway Shops.

COPENHAGEN, March 15.—The men in the workshops of the Austrian railways have struck and refuse to obey the orders of the military to return to work, the Berlin Lokal-Anzeiger states.

The strike is spreading to other factories.

Most of the factories have closed in Floridoff, a town of 25,000 population only four miles from Vienna.

GERMAN'S STORY OF RAIDING LONDON UNDER HEAVY FIRE

Bombs Dropped as British Shells Scream and Roar About Raiders High in Air.

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 25 (Associated Press).—Lieut. Griner of the German Aerial Service has written an account of a "raid" which he claims to have made recently to London. His story, which is printed in the Berlin newspapers, follows:

"The English coast must come into sight soon. Sure enough, there it is in sharp outline. Soon we shall be near enough to realize where we are. Slowly, quite slowly, we approach it. All is peace and quiet. Now the coast lies perpendicularly beneath us. We are nearing the goal of our heart's desire. The English are waiting for us, but we are not disturbed. On we go. Now and then a searchlight picks us up. Now and then a shot flies out at us. But notwithstanding these little hindrances, we press on toward our goal. There it is—London! A brilliant wreath of searchlights sets off the prize from afar.

"I consult my map and compass, and the order is given: 'Cross London from north to south and then veer to eastward.' Beneath us we can see and hear that our presence is detected. Lights burst forth and anti-aircraft guns. Searchlights stab the sky, first slowly, carefully, anxiously, then wildly. Sometimes they locate nothing but a drift-cloud. Then suddenly they find us. Now the ghostly white star is directed straight at our ship and envelops us.

"Shrapnel bursts fiercely all around us. Shells tear at us like birds of prey with flaming eyes. Fore and aft, below, above, everywhere, they scream and roar. It is hellish, yet beautiful. And loud above the crash of the shells we hear the deep boom of our faithful bombs, dropping steadily on their appointed objectives, and always also the orchestral accompaniment of our whirling propellers.

"We are doing things in London, all right. There on our starboard, is a mighty cave-in, and there, to port, another. Midway between them comes a series of explosions, probably a munitions factory. We are certainly letting them have it this time!

"But things are getting hot for us. Away from this inhospitable neighborhood! A carousing west wind is in our back, and amid protecting clouds we start homeward. At the coast another still heavier but equally futile bombardment awaits us. Home we coast back, and before we know it we are safe again on friendly soil.

Dramatic Death of German Flyer Who Bombed Paris.

PARIS, Wednesday, March 12.—Capt. Schoeber of Munich, who was aboard the bombing Gotha brought down at Esnes, in the Department of Seine-et-Oise, on Monday night, met a dramatic end. His two companions were burned to death, but the Captain managed to extricate himself from the blazing machine and to run away from it. A French soldier saw him and rolled him on the ground to extinguish his burning clothing.

A French General commanding the lines of communication was passing in an automobile and took the Captain to a hospital, where his condition was found to be hopeless. Although suffering severely from burns on all parts of his body, Capt. Schoeber showed extraordinary self-command in answering questions.

"You had a mission to perform. Had you accomplished it, or were you about to do so?" asked the General.

"I had already accomplished it, General."

"You went to Paris?"

"Yes, General."

"But, wretch! you have killed women and children!" cried the General.

"I had my orders," was the reply. Capt. Schoeber died of his injuries during the morning.

Vienna Reports Raid on a Suburb of Venice.

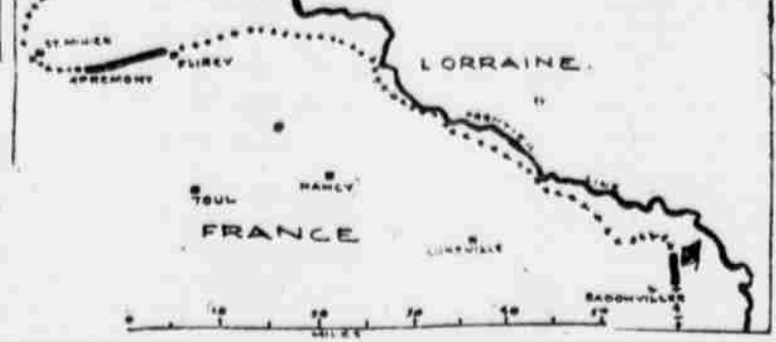

LONDON, Wednesday, March 13.—The following official Austrian report was received here to-day:

"In Venetia two Austro-Hungarian battle columns, in reprisal for enemy aerial attacks, made an attack on the Italian airbase northeast of Mestre, a suburb of Venice. Four enemy pursuit echelons which were ready to set forth were surprised and bombed. One Italian air ship collapsed. On their return journey our aviators bombed Treviso and enemy trenches on the Pavea."

Senator Owen Wants Larger War Credits for West.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—A wider distribution of war credits to prevent centralization of credits in the East was recommended to President Wilson to-day by Senator Owen of Oklahoma, Chairman of the Senate Banking Committee. The Senator suggested that there should be a larger balance of credits in the Western States.

$690,000,000 IN ONE WEEK FOR THE BRITISH WAR LOAN

Total Issue Since October Is $2,850,000,000 Bonar Law Announces in the House of Commons.

LONDON, Wednesday, March 13.—Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced in the House of Commons to-day that the special effort last week to sell national war bonds throughout the country had resulted in subscriptions totalling £137,870,240. To this sum, he said, must be added £2,900,000 of the Post Office issue and £8,100,000 in war savings certificates, making a grand total of £138,870,240 (about $690,000,000) subscribed for the prosecution of the war.

The Chancellor said that since October, when the issue of war bonds began, the total amount sold was £570,000,000 (about $2,850,000,000).

on both cheeks as he pinned the War Cross on his breast.

Capt. Roosevelt thanked the General simply, saying he did not believe he deserved such honor.

Capt. Roosevelt was wounded Monday while with his men in a trench on the Toul front. American artillery preparation for a raid was in progress. The Germans apparently thought the raid was coming from Roosevelt's trench and barraged it. The raid was really launched from another sector, but during the bombardment a shell burst near the Captain, causing a compound fracture of his left arm. A splinter also entered his leg. A Corporal nearby was killed and several other soldiers were wounded by the same shell.

Capt. Roosevelt's brother, Major Theodore Roosevelt Jr., a member of the Medical Corps on the same front, visited him in the hospital. Capt. Roosevelt's wounds are serious, but not fatal. He is doing nicely and is getting and cheerful.

COL. ROOSEVELT CABLES CAPT. ARCHIE HE IS PROUD OF WAR CROSS

"Greatest Possession This Family Has," Declares Ex-President to His Son.

Col. Roosevelt to-day sent the following message to Capt. Archie Roosevelt, wounded and decorated with the French War Cross:

"Archie: We are very anxious, but we are more proud than you can imagine. Gracie and baby all right. Your cross is the greatest possession this family has.

"This was cabled to Fred S. Ferguson, United Press correspondent at the American front, who will personally deliver it to Capt. Roosevelt.

Col. Roosevelt dictated the message over the telephone from his home at Oyster Bay after Ferguson's despatch, giving details of how Archie had been decorated had been read to him.

"Wait a minute," he exclaimed, as he heard the first words of the cable, "I want to dictate this to my daughter."

So, as the despatch was read to him, a few words at a time, he repeated it to other members of the family, with side comments of his own.

When the description of how the French General kissed both Archie's cheeks was read, the Colonel shouted with laughter:

"That's fine—that's perfectly fine," he declared when he had heard all the cable. "I would be very glad to have you send Archie a message from me, through your organization."

He then dictated the message, explaining that Archie was Mrs. Archie Roosevelt, whose home is Boston.

Governor Opposes 'Wartime Saloons' to Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Conn., March 15.—Gov. Hedges said to-day that he would not accede to the request of the State Council to close the saloons of Connecticut as of 10 P. M. daily between May 1 and Nov. 1. This was proposed as a war measure.

PRESS OF GERMANY IN TOWERING RAGE OVER DUTCH SHIPS

Demands Drastic Counter Measures if Holland Yields to Allies.

LONDON, March 15.—The notice served on Holland by Great Britain and the United States regarding the taking over of Dutch ships in Allied ports has thrown the German press into a towering rage, the Copenhagen correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company cables.

The newspapers demand that Germany take the most drastic counter measures if Holland gives way to the Allies.

AMSTERDAM, March 15.—Extracts from Vienna newspapers regarding the Allied intimation that Dutch shipping in Allied ports would be taken over contain violent abuse of the Entente and of the United States. The Neue Freie Presse represents the proposed action as making Dutch neutrality a thing of derision and an undignified outrage. It is particularly bitter against the United States, which it declares to be primarily responsible for this "unprecedented act of violence against a neutral people."

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The million tons of Dutch ships about to be taken over by the United States and Great Britain by requisition, if the Netherlands Government voluntarily does not agree to turn them over, will be used chiefly, officials say to-day, for the transportation of foodstuffs. Their use is expected to go far toward removing the danger of serious food shortages in the Allied countries.

Wheat from the Argentine and meat from the United States will be the principal commodities moved by the ships, many of which have lain idle while the Allied peoples have been living on war rations. The shortage of wheat particularly has been a source of anxiety. Of meat there is abundance, and exports from this country will be doubled as soon as the ships are ready.

The ships will be pooled by the Allied Governments in the common cause. The Dutch crews are expected to remain with them.

HIGHER PAY, LONGER HOURS FOR EMPLOYEES OF U. S.

House Passes Bill Granting Lower Salaried Workers Increase—Day to Be Eight Hours.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The House this afternoon passed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill increased from $69,000,000 to $73,000,000 because of its action in granting higher wages to Government employees.

The salaries of employees now earning less than $2,000 a year were increased $150.

All employees shall work eight hours a day instead of seven, the House decided by adopting an amendment by Representative Holland. Seven hours has been the standard Government working day since 1908 when it was raised from five hours because of the Spanish-American war.

PUT ON INEBRIETY BOARD.

H. S. Martin, Woolen Merchant, Appointed by Hyman.

Herbert Spencer Martin, a woolen merchant, was to-day appointed a member of the Board of Inebriety by Mayor Hyman. It was announced at the Mayor's office that Rev. Father Hughes of the Paulist Fathers, a member of the board, has not been requested to resign, and that he will continue as member. With the appointment of Dr. Martin the new board will have a working membership.

Francis J. Treanor of Marion Avenue, St. Bronx, has been appointed Secretary of the board. Mr. Treanor was formerly Police Commissioner of Yonkers, a State Senator and a member of the Assembly from Westchester County.

Connecticut Woolen Mills Grant 10 Per Cent. Increase.

PLAINFIELD, Conn., March 15.—Many independent woolen mills in Northeastern Connecticut to-day gave notice of a 10 per cent. increase of wages, following the example set by the American Woolen Company earlier in the week.

INTENSE GUN FIRE AND MANY RAIDS ON BRITISH FRONT

Australian Troops Smash Enemy Lines and Capture Number of Prisoners.

LONDON, March 15.—Increased raiding and artillery activity in the Ypres sector and on the front north of Arras is reported in the official statement from the war office late last night. Australian troops carried out successful raids south of Ypres and captured a number of prisoners. Near Arras, Portuguese troops drove back an enemy attack.

"In an encounter last night between Australian troops and a large hostile patrol, we captured 27 prisoners. Our casualties were slight. Australians carried out successful raids during the night west of Houtain and in the neighborhood of Gapaard, east of Messines. We secured a few prisoners in each case and inflicted a number of casualties on the enemy. Hostile artillery has shown great activity to-day against both front and rear lines on the whole front from Vermelles to south of Arras. Under cover of smoke, released during the bombardment, a strong party of the enemy endeavored to enter our trenches, but was driven back by the fire of Portuguese troops. The enemy's artillery activity also has been above normal to-day east of Ypres."

Belgian troops made a successful foray Wednesday near Louvain-la-Neuve. The French also reported the repulse of three German raids.
